Site Instruction: This instruction is not a variation to the Subcontract. Should, however, the execution of the instruction result in additional costs which, in the opinion of the Trade Contractor would justify an application for a variation, then the Trade Contractor must submit such a claim within three (3) days of receipt of this instruction. Failure to do so will signify acceptance of this instruction without cost.

Instruction

Instructions to be detailed with reference to attachments as necessary

This time Xth test Website.

2.7: Cleaning Up When on site, the Subcontractor must clean up and remove all rubbish from the site daily or, if so directed by the Contractor to designated areas on the site. Upon completion of the Subcontract Works, the Subcontractor must leave the site in a clean and tidy condition. If the Subcontractor fails within 24 hours from the receipt of a written direction by the Contractor to clean up or remove rubbish, the Contractor may (without being obliged to do so) arrange for the cleaning up, or, removal of the rubbish at the Subcontractors expense and the cost of doing so is a debt due and owing to the Contractor. The Contractor will advise the Subcontractor of any costs incurred under this clause.

5.3: Work by Others If the Subcontract Works is dependent on or appreciably affected by the quality of any other work to be carried out or that has been carried out by the Contractor or any Separate Contractors ("other work"):

5.3.1: if the other work is defective, the Subcontractor must immediately notify the Contractor in writing so that the Contractor may arrange for the defects to remedied; and

5.3.2: if the Subcontractor accepts the other work by proceeding with the execution of the Subcontract Works and the other work is subsequently found to be defective, then upon rectification of the other work by the Contractor (or any Separate Contractor), if directed by the Contractor the Subcontractor will re-execute that part of the Subcontract Works at no additional cost.
